- ② Eliza
- ③ Daniel C. Taber
- Amanda
- Theodosia Benjamin Cornelius (Benjy)
- Sarah
- ⑥ Eva

Notes - James was the eldest child

Felipe was 2nd
 Daniel was 3rd
 Tom was 16th

I am unsure of the birth order of the others, but Felipe was probably the the dates of the deaths of some of them are listed on the copy of the 'Deaths' page in the Bill Cornelius went to sea and was never heard of again

A couple of daughters married no children. They were sent to get water from the sea behind the house. They were unable to swim, and so they drowned after slipping into the near Benjamin died leaving his home in St George to his sister Eva.

 Eva left it to a daughter, Cecily. Cecily's share left to daughter also daughter by Cecily

P.S. I think Mom said that Charlotte Amanda's father was a Rev. Mallory. He was 1st black minister in Bermuda. He came from the U.S.
 I do not know if he and her mother were married or not.

- Before being freed: Charlotte Amanda ~~is~~ was beaten by her mistress. She retaliated by beating the mistress back. There was some outcry but not much happened. Apparently the people liked her

- Daniel died leaving his wife and children

- James the oldest son assumed the responsibility for helping his mother. The pressure was too great and he became mentally ill. He was hospitalized in the Bermuda mental hospital (that building is now called the 'Smelter' (pronounced ink-bator in Bermuda re that particular place) in December. He saved his experiment for a few days and then it in the night at the institution. He was pushed down the hill to wash himself while James escaped and went home to 'Little Dolly'. A policeman was sent to get him and return him to the hospital. Charlotte Amanda advised the officers to leave him alone. Her advice was ignored by the policeman who pushed into the room where James was. The result of this was that the policeman was stabbed in the abdomen. He died a short time later.

When Sam was hospitalized again his mother was paying for this. The news of this was sent to Queen Victoria who sent a letter and several addresses to Charlotte Amanda. (I think we may have inadvertently thrown this letter away after Mom died James was of legendary strength. He could break a penguin back, and also humans have broken a cat from our back yard to the field on which the school now stands.

Notes re Gabby

1. Legendry for stillborns.

2. Determined to build a big house like a man standing with bridge, 9th work, on Bailey's Bay the house around the corner from your house majority of his grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

3. Gabby in life became mentally ill and was institutionalized for awhile. He would not cooperate and even refused to bathe.

4. He became famous for the expression "Not
