Synopsis: As Fred Jr. son, I am presenting this, on his behalf, as he passed just prior to his father.

This is in reference to the estate of Fred Hendrickson Sr., who was placed in an elder home against his will by his stepdaughters, Carol Ann Furbert and Albertha Greene. They had him arrested and taken to MAWI from his own home with the view of taking over his properties. Fred Sr. had one son, Fred Hendrickson Jr. (also known as Robinson), who was being kept away by the stepdaughters in his final years. Fred Sr. had a power of attorney drawn up to authorize his cousin Betty Hendrickson Burch to control his affairs in October 2003, revoking the 6th August 2003 power of attorney authorizing the stepdaughters. Up until his son, Fred Jr's passing this was under review to determine a resolve. The stepdaughters then had a power of attorney drawn up in Virginia authorizing their cousin and them, in the second instance, which we believe they used to convey Fred Sr. assets into their names. With his obvious discrepancies with power of attorney and the efforts of the stepdaughters to keep his son away we believe Fred Sr. assets were transferred in contravention of Fred Sr. wishes and Fred Jr. would have been Fred Sr. heir to some or all of his assets.
