
Death Of Mrs. R. E. S. Fox

Survived by three sons and six daughters, Mrs. Rose Elizabeth Sinclair Fox, niece of the late Henry Mortimer Fox, who was known as "the uncrowned king of St. David's," died at her home at 1.15 a.m. on Sunday and was buried at the Chapel of Ease, St. David's, at 4.30 p.m. on Tuesday.

Mrs. Fox, who had lived on St. David's all her 71 years, was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Fox. Her three sons are Mr. Harry G. Fox, Mr. Charles McLloyd Fox and Mr. Royden Fox. The six daughters are Mrs. Valetta Hinson, Mrs. Charles Griffith, Mrs. John Verby (of New York), Mrs. Campbell O'Connor, Mrs. Stacy Foggo and Mrs. Sidney Carlington.

Her surviving sisters and brothers are Mrs. Frederick Foggo, Mrs. Elsie Foggo (of New York), Mr. Albert S. Fox and Mr. Charles (War Baby) Fox.

Aug. 1, 1877 - Feb. 8, 1948